

House District 65

Legend

- Precincts
- Corporate Boundaries
- Water
- 65
- 66
- 67
- 68
- 69
- 70
- 95

Linn County
Linn County is a county in the state of Iowa. It is one of the 99 counties in Iowa. The county is named after the Linn family, who were prominent in the area. The county is located in the northwestern part of the state. It is bordered by Hamilton County to the north, Boone County to the east, and Jasper County to the south. The county is home to the city of Cedar Rapids, which is the largest city in the county. The county is also home to several smaller cities and towns, including Adel, Keosauqua, and Park Rapids. The county is known for its agriculture, particularly corn and soybeans. It is also known for its scenic views and outdoor recreation opportunities. The county is a member of the Linn County Board of Supervisors, which is responsible for the county's administration and services.

IOWA
Iowa is a state in the central United States. It is one of the 50 states in the Union. The state is named after the Ioway people, who were a Native American tribe that lived in the area. The state is known for its agriculture, particularly corn and soybeans. It is also known for its scenic views and outdoor recreation opportunities. The state is a member of the Midwestern United States and the Great Plains regions. The state is home to several major cities, including Des Moines, Iowa City, and Ames. The state is also home to several smaller cities and towns. The state is known for its friendly people and its rich history. The state is a member of the United States of America.

Date: 12/15/2016